HIGH-TONED BEGGAR!

Puts His Feet Under the New Central's Mahogany at $2 a Day!

George Collins, Dover, Del.

That's the way, at least, it reads on the register at the New Central.

George is blind, his profession is begging, and it is said he practices his art among Church people, finding them the most susceptible and sympathetic.

Yesterday, however, a certain City Preacher, who had encountered George several years ago, exposed his little scheme and caused his arrest.

When Chief Donovan landed him he put up a fight, but was soon subdued and placed in Jail.

A search revealed a wonderfully constructed watch, one of the kind that strikes the minutes, the quarter, half, three-quarters and whole hours, gives the moon's phases, has flyback second and several other novelties, and which is said to cost anywhere from $700 to $1,000. Besides, he had a K. of P. charm, several dollars in Mexican ten-cent pieces, a few dollars in Uncle Sam's currency and coin and two or three railway tickets.

Officer Harry Ott will take the watch to Cincinnati today, as one of that build was lost there some years ago.

George will this afternoon have a chance to explain his mode of doing business, and will no doubt be able to satisfy Judge Wadsworth that he can put up at first-class hotels and still make begging pay.

THE ELKS WILL MAKE IT GO

Come to Maysville September 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th.

Russell & Son's at 1:30 this afternoon to begin a canvass for subscriptions to the Premium List. Our merchants should remember that this fair will be managed for their benefit, and it is expected to draw the largest crowd ever in attendance on a like occasion in this city.

If each will do his part, there can be no such thing as failure.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN, in a talk with

Chicago newspaper men, said:

"I am for MARK HANNA for the Republican candidate for President next time, and hope the Republicans will nominate him, but I'm not sure I can control their Convention."

"Who would be a good man for the Democrats to nominate?" was asked.

"It's too early to talk about any man for the Democratic nomination," said Mr. Bryan. "I have taken up a line of work and believe I have twenty years ahead of me to carry it out."

In other words, Mr. BRYAN proposes to devote the next twenty years—if he lives that long—to chasing after the Presidency! But it does look like he ought to deduct the five or six years which he has already given to the sport.

It may not be uninteresting to the taxpayers of Mayville to know just what the present so-called "streets" have cost them during the past fourteen years.

Here are the figures—

1896	$ 9,307 41
1897	6,294 17
1898	6,176 78
1899	5,128 85

1908	7,372 45
1909	9,906 33

THIS SOUNDS FISHY.

A Lewis County Man Receives $6.35
From a Repentant Thief.A special from Vancsburg says Mr.
Frank P. Doyle, living near Petersville, received an unsigned letter, postmarked
Rogers, Ark., enclosing $6.35. The writer said:

"Mr. Doyle, you know who I am and you don't know either. I stole $5 in cash from your pocket when you were unconscious about thirteen years ago.

The matter has worried me ever since,

especially so of late, as I am now a preacher of the Gospel, and am doing my best to do right. I have thought the best way to fix myself to win sinners to repentance is to clear my own skirts.

This clears me. It would not do any good for me to tell you my name, so I will let that pass. I only want to clear myself as best I can. The extra $1.35 is for good interest."

Mr. Doyle says he remembers losing the money, but afterwards supposed he had spent it.

The First Thing the Doctor Does

No matter what your trouble is, it is to get your bowels working properly, and preserve the system of laxative, and to be right. About every disease you can think of creeps into the system when it is clogged up with bile, caused by constipation. Keep the bowels moving by keeping constipation out. "Laxative Does It."

Laxative, the great tonic laxative, keeps the bowels open and regular, a sure cure for the nervous system of the stomach and acts directly upon the liver and kidneys, keeping them active and strong, the blood is purified, every organ and function of the body is strengthened, nerves are invigorated and you feel invigorated and toned up.

For tired, worn out, faded, weak, when blood is run down, blood thin, faces drawn and lagged, and that general "all gone" feeling, Laxative is the medicine. It gently moves the bowels and thus removes the cause of the nervous system, cleans the liver, quickens circulation, increases the blood, brightens the eye and re-energizes and tones up the entire system.

Laxative is a gentle, safe, and sure cure for all cases of constipation, indigestion, biliousness, headache, dizziness, and all the troubles that come from a clogged-up system. It is the best medicine for the bowels, and it is the best medicine for the liver, and it is the best medicine for the kidneys, and it is the best medicine for the stomach, and it is the best medicine for the entire system.

BLOODY TRAGEDY.

H. S. Church Killed Emily Stuart and Several Hours Later Committed Suicide.

Louisville, June 24.—The death of H. S. Church, at 4:30 Sunday morning, was the second act of a bloody tragedy that began in Louisville three days ago with the murder of Emily Stuart, but which did not come to light until late Saturday when the police found the horribly mutilated body of the woman hidden in a closet and in the same house the man dying from wounds self-inflicted with pistol and razor. Several pistol shots near Twelfth and Market streets, caused Policemen Finnegan, Webb and Huggins to enter the small frame building at 1215 West Market street, occupied by H. S. Church as a grocery store and residence, the living room being just back of the grocery. The police saw through a window clouds of smoke from a pistol. They forced an entrance and found Church propped up in a chair bleeding from a big wound made in his left breast with a 45-caliber Colt's revolver and from a slash across his left wrist with a razor. On the floor was an empty bottle labeled laudanum. Church gave utterance only to his death groans. He was gotten to a hospital, but died early Sunday morning without making a statement.

Neighbors say they last saw Mrs. Stuart Thursday evening. It developed Sunday that Mrs. Stuart had saved some money by working as a housekeeper for two men and had received a small interest in Church's store. Mrs. Stuart was the widow of Robert Stuart and has some relatives in Louisville. She came to this city from Frankfort, Ky., and was 35 years of age. Church conducted his grocery business all day Friday as usual, but his store was closed most of Saturday. He was 35 years old and came to Louisville from Frankfort four months ago. In that city he has two sisters. The police intended to charge him Sunday with the murder of Mrs. Stuart.

DEATH IN A FLOOD.

Horror at Johnstown in 1889 Equalled so Far as Loss of Property is Concerned.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE WERE DROWNED

Poconatas Coal Fields in West Virginia Ruined by High Water
in Elkhorn Creek.

The Town of Keystone, Population of About 2,000, Almost Washed Away—Much Damage at Other Points.

Bluefield, W. Va., June 24.—This entire section has just been visited by a flood, the extent of which in all probability will equal or exceed that of Johnstown in 1889 so far as the loss of property is concerned. Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began accompanied by a severe electrical storm, which violently increased in volume, and continuing for several hours. This continued throughout the entire day and night, and at 10 a. m., while the storm has abated, the lowering clouds would indicate another terrific downpour at any moment. Many mines, coal fields and Western track, bridges and telegraph lines are entirely destroyed, and communication is entirely cut off west of Elkhorn, and it is impossible to learn the full extent of the loss of life and property, but officials of the coal corporations located in the west of Elkhorn, have sent out messengers to Elkhorn, the terminus of both telegraphic and railroad communications, and have received a report that conservative estimate as to the loss of life will easily reach 200. Some of the drowned are among the most prominent citizens of the coal fields.

A Water Spout.
The Poconatas coal field is located in a basin, with high mountains on either side, Elkhorn creek flowing through the center of the basin, and ranges from on-fourth to one mile in width. From Ennis, W. Va., to Vivian Yard, Va., a distance of two miles, miners' cabins, coal companies and coke plants line this basin. Elkhorn creek, being fed by numerous small streams coming from the mountains, which flow rapidly, and this water spout came so suddenly that the entire basin between the two mountain ranges was wooded, and before the terror-stricken people realized what was upon them, they were carried down by the flood, which swept everything in its path.

The little town of Keystone, with a population of about 2,000, seems the greatest sufferer, practically the whole town being washed away. The town is the principal one in the Poconatas coal fields, and is located near its center. It was to a great extent the headquarters of the mining population, and was also the only place in the field where whisky could be purchased. At this place there were some 12 to 15 saloons, all of which was washed away.

AT TAZEWELL VA.
Great Loss of Life and Property
Throughout That Entire Section Is Reported.

On the Clinch valley branch of the Norfolk and Western railway, between this city and Norton, Va., west of Tazewell, Va. Reports come from that point of great loss of life and property throughout that entire section. In Shaker's Negro settlement on the outskirts of Tazewell, the water stands to the depth of six or eight feet in the streets, and all of the occupants having been removed to points of safety by means of boats. Three miles west of Tazewell, on the Highgate branch, the home of Parle Vandike, a farm hand, was swept away, carrying with it Mrs. Vandike and four children, two of the Vandike children, John, aged 17, and Charles, aged 5, being drowned. Mrs. Vandike, with the two remaining children, Edgar and Laura, were found at 9 o'clock Sunday morning in a dying condition one mile from where the house stood, by Mr. Vandike, who was absent from home at the time of the destruction, and the rescuing party was searching for the Vandike family, they found the body of a white woman, well clad, floating down the river, and it was this far has been able to identify her, and it is supposed the body had washed down from some distance.

COAL AND COKE PLANTS.
A Great Many at the Mouth of the Poconatas River, West, Entirely Washed Away.

The report comes that the mining population are now occupying the banks of the streams below catching the merchandise and barrels of whisky and beer as they float down. A great number of the coal and coke plants at the mouth of Poconatas region are reported practically destroyed and are in some instances entirely washed away. Owing to the very high water which has flooded the region and prevented communication, anything like a correct estimate of the loss of property is impossible, but from the best information obtainable so far Sunday the loss to property will easily reach

$2,000,000. Landgraf, the beautiful home of Gen. Manager Gray, is reported gone, but his family is said to be safe.

Cars Washed From the Tracks.
Passenger Train No. 4, of the Norfolk and Western railway, reached Vivian about 8:30 a. m., met the flood and was unable to proceed further. The waters reached such a depth that the coaches had to be abandoned, the passengers being rescued by means of ropes strung from the windows of coaches to the tops of remaining coals, over some distance away. Between Elkhorn and Vivian Yard, a distance of ten miles, 100 cars are said to be washed from the tracks and many of them were carried down the streams.

A rough estimate places the number of bridges washed away between Bluefield and Vivian Yard, a distance of 28 miles, at from 15 to 20, and from present indications it will be impossible to get through to Vivian and points west of there under a week or ten days. This will render it impossible to get relief into the stricken district, and to those who escaped with their lives, homeless and without food, indescribable suffering is inevitable.

FLOOD AND STORM.

At Least Four Persons Lost Their Lives in the Flood—Much Damage in Pennsylvania—Much Damage.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 24.—The rain and flood which broke over Allegheny county on Saturday afternoon, besides causing much damage in every part of the county, is known to have caused at least four deaths, besides bringing injury to two.

From all over the county Sunday night came fuller reports of damage to life and property, and no additional fatalities are reported. The Turtle creek district was again visited by a heavy rain storm Sunday night, and the condition of Saturday was duplicated with even more destruction. Damage to the town and valley amounted to thousands of dollars. At the Pittsburgh Westinghouse plant, which extends for nearly a mile parallel with the hill, was submerged again Sunday night by six feet of water on the lower floor, which left three feet of mud where it receded. More than 400 street car motors are apparently destroyed, and as to the Westinghouse company, it is believed, will reach $500,000.

STRUCK BY A TORNADO.

Property to the Amount of $100,000 Was Destroyed in Lincoln, Ill., and Vicinity.

Lincoln, Ill., June 24.—This city was visited by a tornado, which did $100,000 worth of damage. The storm passed over a mile and a half wide and 12 mile long. The Lincoln mattress factory was almost destroyed and great damage was done to the Illinois Laying and Feeding Minded Children, the Illinois Old Fellows' home, Lincoln college, the four mills and the county poor farm. Several houses were wrecked, and thousands of trees were torn up. An elevator at Midletown was destroyed, and several houses were damaged. At Elkhardt freight cars were blown from the tracks and great damage was done to wheat, corn and oats.

CORTIZ CAPTURED.

The Murderer of Sheriff Glover and Morris Identified by Persons Who Knew Him For Years.

Laredo, Tex., June 24.—Sheriff Avant, of Alameda county, Kinzel, of Frio, and Deputy Sheriff Choate, of Karnes county, with several members of their various posses, arrived here at 6 o'clock Sunday evening to identify the man captured by Capt. Rogers and R. P. K. Merriam about 40 miles above here Saturday. Among the men who arrived Sunday evening were two who knew the prisoner, O. M. of them, William Loucary, of Bastrop county, has known Cortez since 1902 and Deputy Sheriff Choate, of Karnes county, has known him for several years. They both positively identified the prisoner, and said there is absolutely no doubt that he is the man whom they have known all these years as Gregorio Cortez, and who killed Sheriff Morris.

THE BOER INVASION.

It is Reported to Be Serious, the Invaders Numbering Between 7,000 and 10,000.

London, June 24.—Lord Kitchener has no yet seen any report of the Waterkloof mishap. Recent events in Cape Colony seem to prove the Boer invasion of that country to be serious, but, should it be a "good-night smoke," that he choose the cool of the window, possibly dozed, lost his balance and fell from the window. The presence of the ring on the floor, however, gave rise to the fancy that possibly while toying with the ring, it dropped, and that in an effort to recover it, the fall resulted. However it happened, the known facts make it conclusive that it was all a frightful accident.

SECRETARY HAY ILL.

Warned Out by the Long Trip From Washington to New Haven He Took to His Bed.

New Haven, Ct., June 24.—Hon. John Hay, secretary of State, worn out by the trip of nearly nine hours from Washington, to New Haven, and nearly prostrated by grief at the untimely

A TERRIBLE DEATH.

Adelbert Stone Hay Fell From a Hotel Window at New Haven, Ct.

A SON OF SECRETARY OF STATE HAY.

The Fall Was a Distance of Sixty Feet and the Young Man Was Killed Instantly.

The Father Is Stricken With Grief and Is Confined to His Bed—His Condition, However, Is Not Thought Serious.

New Haven, Ct., June 24.—Adelbert Stone Hay, former consul of the United States at Pretoria, South Africa, and eldest son of Secretary of State John Hay, fell from a window in the third story of the New Haven house, in this city, shortly before 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning and was instantly killed. The dead man was a graduate of Yale, of the class of '98, and his death occurred on the 98th of his twenty-seventh birthday, which brought him here Saturday, and in which, by virtue of his class office, the young man would have been present.

The terrible tragedy has cast a gloom over the whole city, and will undoubtedly be felt throughout the city, which heretofore has been so brilliant and full of happiness for Yale and her sons.

Hay had gone to the New Haven house for commencement week. It is generally supposed, however, that after going to his room he went to the window for air and, sitting on the sill, he dozed off and, overlooking the fall to the pavement below, a fall of fully 60 feet. The fall resulted in instant death, and within 15 minutes the body had been identified as that of young Hay. How it all happened became a matter of speculation on the part of the throng of curious spectators who gathered, and a subject of mournful inquiry for the classmates and friends of the young man.

Physicians Were Summoned.
Half a dozen physicians who were hastily summoned were unable to do anything for the boy, who lay in a position at the order of the coroner's deputy, Medical Examiner Bartlett.

Repeated efforts to locate Secretary Hay by wire were futile until the early morning hours, when a request from the father reached Mr. Seth Mosely, the proprietor of the hotel, to take care of the body until the members of the family could reach town. Meantime the sensation occasioned by the tragedy continued. Every movement of young Hay was traced in an effort to penetrate the uncertainty of the awful affair.

It was learned that the young man on May 29 left Washington with his mother and two sisters for Newbury, N. H., the summer home of Secretary Hay. Last week he left New Hampshire for New York, where he spent some days. He arrived in New Haven Saturday evening in time for dinner, and went immediately to the New Haven house, where he was assigned to Room No. 47, third floor front, directly across the Chapel street entrance to the hotel office.

A SOLITARY SPECTATOR.

A Laborer on the Streets, Seeing Mr. Hay Falling Through Space, Gave the Alarm.

There was a solitary spectator to the terrible tragedy, a laborer on the city streets. At the hour mentioned the workman saw a man fall from a falling through space. An instant later the body lay directly in front of the main hotel entrance. The horrified laborer rushed to the spot, and his shouts brought others. The usual crowd gathered. In it were several related Yale graduates. They bent over the body. One of them, a man, a son of the late Edward G. Mason, of Chicago, and a classmate of young Hay, drew back, and, horror-stricken, cried: "My God, it's Del Hay." By this time the hotel clerk had reached the scene and made the identification complete. The body was clad in pajamas.

A "Good-Night Smoke."

On the window sill of the room occupied by young Hay was found a partly consumed cigarette. On the floor near the window was a ring worn by the victim. His clothing had been neatly arranged, and the bed clothes were drawn back. The floor near the window had not been stepped on, and it was not until the body was found that the mystery became intangible. The popular theory seems to have it that the young man, having prepared for bed, thought to indicate a "good-night smoke," that he choose the cool of the window, possibly dozed, lost his balance and fell from the window. The presence of the ring on the floor, however, gave rise to the fancy that possibly while toying with the ring, it dropped, and that in an effort to recover it, the fall resulted. However it happened, the known facts make it conclusive that it was all a frightful accident.

WARM OUT BY THE LONG TRIP FROM WASHINGTON TO NEW HAVEN HE TOOK TO HIS BED.

New Haven, Ct., June 24.—Hon. John Hay, secretary of State, worn out by the trip of nearly nine hours from Washington, to New Haven, and nearly prostrated by grief at the untimely end of his oldest son, Adelbert S. Hay, here Sunday morning, reached this city at 5:45 o'clock Sunday evening. He was accompanied by his secretary, Mr. Whitney, and was met at the station by R. L. McDuffy, of New York city, and Mr. Charles Wade, of Cleveland, Ohio, who were witnesses of extreme fatigue, and the mental agony incident upon his great affliction was unmistakably written on his features.

The secretary, with his party, immediately entered a carriage and was driven in great haste to the residence of Mr. Seth Mosely, 36 Wall street. In the drawing room of the house reposed the remains of his dead son. In the presence of the beloved dead Col. Hay utterly collapsed, and, prostrated by his great grief, took to his bed. Dr. Samuel D. Gilbert was summoned and administered to the patient.

RELATIVES ARRIVING.

Scarcely more than an hour passed before Miss Helen Hay, a daughter of the family, well high prostrated by the shock of the sad news, was at her father's bedside. Meanwhile there gathered at the Mosely residence other mourners for the dead. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wade, of Cleveland, who are in the harbor on the yacht Wadena, were the first of the distant relatives to arrive. R. L. McDuffy, of New York, another relative, received the news in Cambridge, where he had been in attendance on the Harvard commencement exercises of last week. He reached New Haven in time to meet Col. Hay early Sunday evening.

Sunday evening dispatches were received that Mrs. Hay and a daughter, Miss Alice Hay, are enroute from Newbury, Clarence Hay, the younger son, is expected from Simsbury, Ct., where he has been at school.

THE FUNERAL.

No Announcement Will Be Made Until the Arrival of Mrs. Hay and Mr. Mathew.

At the Mosely residence Sunday it was formally announced that no arrangements for the funeral will be made until the arrival of Mrs. Hay and Mr. Mathew.

Late Sunday night Dr. Gilbert, who is at the bedside of the secretary, announced that the condition of Col. Hay is not serious, adding that he is simply overwhelmed with grief, and that the prostration will disappear after sufficient rest.

The triennial class of '98, of which Adelbert Hay was a member, has gone into mourning. New arrivals of the class, of whom heard the news for the first time on reaching the college town, are shocked, and it has been practically decided to make no formal arrangements for a class recognition of its loss until a future contingent is present.

There is a disposition on the part of the many of the class to abandon entirely the elaborate features of the triennial reunion and wait upon the presence of Secretary Hay and the members of the bereaved family.
